RESTAURANT CASSIS INTRODUCES WEEKEND BRUNCH SERVICE AND ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR OUTDOOR SIDEWALK SEATING

San Francisco, Calif. (October 6, 2008) – Restaurant Cassis (“Cassis”) today announced plans to open its doors for weekend brunch. Beginning October 11, 2008, Cassis will serve brunch on Saturdays and Sundays from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. The new brunch service will be in addition to its regular dinner service, which is offered six nights per week (closed Mondays). In connection with the launch of brunch, Cassis also plans to add outdoor sidewalk seating to offer its guests the option of dining “al fresco” on warm weather days.

The brunch menu at Cassis will consist of breakfast favorites with a French twist, such as Caramelized French Toast and Eggs Benedict served on a toasted brioche, along with traditional French lunch specialties such as Croque Monsieur and Salade Frisée aux Lardons. Cassis will also offer a variety of desserts during brunch hours including Amaretto Crème Brulée, Fondue au Chocolat and Île Flottante. The complete brunch menu can be viewed at www.RestaurantCassis.com.

Co-owners Stephane and Jerome Meloni stated, “We are pleased to extend our hours of operation and offer another neighborhood option for a reasonably priced weekend brunch. Our guests appreciate our focus on offering authentic French and Italian-inspired cuisine using only the finest and freshest ingredients, and our new brunch service will remain true to that commitment. Like our dinner menu, our brunch selections will evolve and change seasonally, and will reflect the home cooking of our native region in the South of France.”
